

Mystery Theatre Project

Theme 1

The Disappearance of Elizabeth Winters

On a dark night, a woman checks into a hotel for when she was on her way from an audition, it began to rain. After checking in, the woman begins walking towards the elevator and stops for a minute waiting for it to arrive. The elevator soon arrives and the woman enters. As the elevator is going up, she can hear it passing through every floor. Suddenly, she begins hearing a strange, scratching noise not sure of what it might be. She begins to look around until she feels water drop fall on her head. She looks up and sees a strange creature laughing at her. Terrified, the woman lets out a loud scream and thunder strikes. When the elevator opens once again, it is empty.